PASTORAL SHARINGS

Our current Sexton, Mr. Ed Kozloski, has decided to move into full retirement. We are indebted to him for his work at both churches. He has been a conscientious, knowledgeable and collaborative employee. We will miss his presence but wish him all the best. At the same time, we welcome, Mrs. Charlene Stosonis, who will begin as our new parish Sexton. She and her husband operate River Street Farm. I know that we will all welcome Charlene as she acclimates to her new position in the parish. Welcome, Charlene!

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. John P. Melnick

REMEMBRANCE FUND

It is customary and fitting to remember loved ones who have died with memorial donations to a favorite cause or charity. In this way, the memory of the deceased is honored and a good work, either civic or religious, is perpetuated. There are numerous charities that have been traditionally designated for such purpose.

Memorial donations to the Remembrance Fund are restricted to the betterment and furtherance of our worship and our place of worship - the Church, as the needs present itself, or as determined by the Pastor.

We are grateful to the following who have donated to the Remembrance Fund:

† In Memory of Ignatz "George" Dudack

Belcan Corporation
Internet Testing Systems
